ABOUT THE MUSIC

Merlin was composed for and is dedicated to William Moersch. The poem Merlin by Edwin Arlington Robinson is a long narrative retelling of the King Arthur legend and of the destruction of his Court. I have used two quotes from the poem to set the tone of the two movements of the score.

— A.T.

 "GAWAINE, GAWAINE, what look ye for to see,
 So far beyond the faint edge of the world?
 D'ye look to see the lady Vivian,
 Pursued by divers ominous vile demons
 That have another king more fierce than ours?
 Or think ye that if ye look far enough
 And hard enough into the feathery west
 Ye'll have a glimmer of the Grail itself?
 And if ye look for neither Grail nor lady,
 What look ye for to see, Gawaine, Gawaine?"

2.
 . . . Time's way with you and me
 Is our way, in that we are out of Time
 And out of tune with Time.
